Report of Swachh Bharat Activities

Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education (Autonomous) conducted a Scout Camp from 16.04.2023 to 21.04.2023. Among these days we planned one Trekking cum Swachh Bharat Activity at Aranganathar Temple, Palamalai, Coimbatore on 19.04.2023. We obtained prior permission from both the Forest Office and Temple In-charge, who generously agreed to provide lunch for our group.

On 19th April 2023 morning 8:15 am, we started from the college using buses and bikes. We reached at Palamalai Hill approximately 9.15 am and parked vehicles before gathering together. In total 42 members (38) students, Sri. B. Sivakumaran, Scout Leader, Sri. R. Lakshmanan, Scout Master, Sri A. Bhaskaran, Scout Master and Dr. S. Sivasankar Camp Coordinator reached the Palamalai. Two Forest Department Staff, Mr. Marimuthu (Forest Guard, Forest Range Office, Periyanaickenpalayam) and Mr. Sakthivel (Forest Guard, Forest Range Office, Periyanaickenpalayam), provided a brief orientation about forest and nature of Wild animals.

After that students were divided into many groups and separate area allotted to each group for clean. Scout Masters also joined along with the students and involved in the Swachh activities for about 2 hours. In total, we cleaned 4.5 km of the hill's road and the temple premises, collecting 15 large bags of plastic and Glass bottles, and other waste materials.

Report Library Week Celebration

Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education's Department of Library and Learning Resources organized a series of events to celebrate Library Week, which included an online webinar on the preservation and conservation of books. The webinar was conducted on November 14, 2022, at 6.00 pm. The session was conducted by Dr. P. Perumal, a former Curator and Librarian of Saraswathi Mahal Library, who served as a resource person and provided valuable insights on the subject of preservation of books. The webinar was attended by students and faculty members from Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education, as well as teachers and librarians from other institutions.

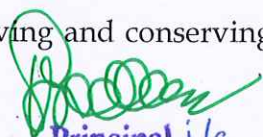

During the webinar, Dr. P. Perumal discussed the importance of preserving books and the various methods and techniques used in book conservation. He also highlighted the challenges faced by librarians and book conservationists in preserving rare and valuable books.

Dr. G. Subramonian, the Principal of Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education, delivered a presidential address, in which he emphasized the importance of books and libraries in education and research.

Following the presentation, there was a question and answer session, which provided an opportunity for participants to ask specific questions about book preservation and conservation. The event also featured speeches by Sri V. Prakash and R. Suganthan, first-year B.Ed. students, who highlighted the significance of libraries and the rewards of reading books respectively.

The webinar concluded with Sri J. Vishnu proposing a vote of thanks to Dr. Perumal, the participants, and the organizing team for making the event a success. Overall, the webinar on preservation and conservation of books was an informative and insightful session, which provided valuable insights to students, faculty members, and librarians on the importance of preserving and conserving books.

On November 15, 2022, a debate on the topic "Promoting Reading Habits: Role of Teachers Vs Role of Parents" was organized by the Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education. The debate aimed at encouraging critical thinking and generate a discussion on the importance of promoting reading habits among children.

A group of eight students from the College of Education took part in the debate. The participants were divided into two teams, with one team advocating for the role of teachers in promoting reading habits, and the other team supporting the role of parents.

The debate was moderated by Dr. R. Ayyappan, Assistant Professor of Physical Science, who served as an adjudicator. The students presented their arguments with clarity and confidence, highlighting the importance of reading in the development of language skills, cognitive abilities and creativity. The team advocating for the role of teachers argued that teachers played a crucial role in promoting reading habits among students. They emphasized the importance of classroom libraries, reading assignments and discussions on books, which can foster a love for reading among students.

On the other hand, the team supporting the role of parents argued that parents are the first teachers of their children and have a greater influence on their reading habits. They highlighted the importance of setting an example by reading themselves, providing access to books, and encouraging children to read for pleasure.

The debate was lively and engaging discussion, with both teams presenting well-researched arguments and counterarguments. Dr. R. Ayyappan, the moderator, provided insightful feedback and encouraged the participants to think critically about the topic.

In conclusion, the debate on "Promoting Reading Habits: Role of Teachers Vs Role of Parents" was a successful event, which generated fruitful ideas, and highlighted the importance of reading for the development of children. The parents showed their passion for the topic and their commitment to promoting reading habits among children.
