'Gurupuja' - 2019

A Community Linked Socio Cultural Function

Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya, Coimbatore celebrated 'Gurupuja', a community linked socio cultural function on the Birthday of Bhagavan Sri Ramakrishna on 06 January 2019 in which all the students involve in extending voluntary social service to the public with the guidance of teachers. During this celebration, spiritual, educational and cultural programmes are conducted exclusively for the benefit of local public. Around one lakh public participates in all these programmes. The entire celebration is organized by the students and faculty members of all the institutions of Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya. The students and faculty members voluntarily involve in organizing various events during the celebration. The responsibilities entrusted with the students and the execution enable them to improve their academic, leadership, collaborative and organizational skills by organising activities/events like Educational expo, Science exhibition, Literary competitions, Cultural programmes, Spiritual discourses, Managerial skill development programmes, Hospitality management etc. Engaging in various service activities assist the student teachers in sensitising towards their duties and responsibilities within the society and community, and develop their social values.

Report of Child Art Competition Report - 2018 - 2019

The Guru Pooja Child Art Competition for school students was successfully organized by Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education on 15th and 16th November 2018 at the GKD Auditorium. The competition aimed to showcase the artistic talents of students and foster creativity among them. The event was divided into two categories, namely Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya Schools and schools from outside the Vidyalaya. Additionally, students were further categorized into five groups based on their classes of study, with each group receiving separate topics to work on. The competitions for classes I to VIII took place on the first day, while classes IX to XII participated on the second day.

A total of 163 contestants from 17 different institutions actively participated in the competition, making it a truly vibrant and diverse event. The registration process commenced promptly at 9:15 am, where all the registered participants received their drawing sheets to begin their creative journey. The competition officially began with a soulful prayer song at 10:00 am, setting a positive and inspiring atmosphere. Students were categorized into two groups: Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya school students and students from other schools.

The event commenced with Dr. Immanuel Johnson, the Coordinator of the competition, warmly welcoming the gathering and providing an overview of the rules and regulations. Dr. S. Rajaguru, the Principal of Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education, delivered a felicitation address, motivating the participants to give their best and emphasizing the importance of art in Education. The competition spanned three hours, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm, during which students showcased their talents and creativity, bringing their assigned topics to life on paper.

Following the intense and inspiring competition, all the participants, judges, and teachers were graciously provided with a traditional lunch at the Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya College of Education hostel. During this time, an expert committee diligently reviewed the artworks and selected the top three drawing in each category. After the lunch break at 2:00 pm, the prize winners were announced, generating much anticipation and excitement among the participants. The first prize winners are honored in the Guru Pooja Celebrations, while the remaining prize winners are either presented with their awards in person or received them through postal services after the Guru Pooja Celebrations. To acknowledge the efforts of all participants, each contestant was awarded a participation certificate as a token of appreciation for their contribution to the event.

Dr. Immanuel Johnson, the Coordinator of the competition, expressed gratitude on behalf of the organizing committee and extended a heartfelt vote of thanks to all the participants, judges, teachers and volunteers who made the event a resounding success. The programme ended on a patriotic note with the rendition of the National Anthem, leaving everyone with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

The Guru Pooja Child Art Competition served as a platform for young artists to exhibit their talents, fostering a love for art and promoting creativity among students. It was a memorable event that celebrated the power of imagination and artistic expression.
